LONG BIO

Brian Rand is the founder of Event Sales Agency in Miami, Florida. He grew up in South Dakota farm country, found sales in a Jeffrey Gitomer book, and drove to Miami after Thanksgiving with everything he owned in his car. In November 2021 he made one post asking who had an event he could sell. That post became Event Sales Agency: 400+ Events, $75M in client sales, 100,000+ Attendees. It fills live events and webinars for coaches and consultants. Brian runs his company on an AI operator that writes his morning brief, grades sales calls and watches the money, and he now builds the same AI agent employees for other business owners and teaches it from stages. His 45 minute talk, Run your company on an AI employee, shows what an AI operator actually does inside a real company. Brian speaks on AI agent employees and on filling live events and webinars.

WHAT BRIAN SPEAKS ON
